

2017 Critter Camp Scholarship Application

Purpose

One of the missions of the Whatcom Humane Society is to promote humane treatment and respect for animals in our community through education. We feel that the best way to end the cycle of animal abuse and overpopulation is to teach the next generation the importance of such values. The Whatcom Humane Society believes that education should be attainable for everyone in our community regardless of financial limitations. As such, we open this scholarship to youth in our community who require financial assistance to attend Critter Camp.
